Our School

Nagoya SKY Japanese Language school is located in Shin-Sakae area in the Naka ward, which is the heart of Nagoya city.

Nagoya city is the third largest urban city located in the centre of Japan. It is about halfway between Tokyo and Osaka, and is also one of a famous education area in which many schools are located.

It is dotted with historical spots cultural assets.

There are many useful sites around out school such as a library and an art museum- it is ideal environment for study.

Moreover, Shin-Sakae is a very urban area. You can walk from our school to the supermarket, many convenience stores, big department stores, a general hospital, ward office, and so on. It takes only a few minutes on foot.

An expert teacher takes charge of each class.

Each student's level and working command of Japanese is checked individually, then educational guidance is matched with the student's capability.

We teach general Japanese course and also specialised JLPT and EJU exam courses. Moreover we hold various events such as a speech competition, a calligraphy convention, visits to a companies and universities, and school trips to experience Japanese culture.
